IN MEMORY

This page is dedicated to the memory of Mr. Griffith L. Gordon, who was the first band teacher in our school. Mr. Gordon was listed in "Who's Who in Music," 1950.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council members are: Nadine Hayes and Wayne Feeler, Seniors; Jim Redel and Wilma Miller, Juniors; Jimmie Bray and Jackie Feeler, Sophomores; Mary Ann Lawson and Delbert Miller, Freshmen; Emma Backues and Donnie Poor, Grades.

Our Student Council is composed of ten members chosen by popular vote to represent the student body in matters concerning school government, school projects, and in matters of school improvement. The members select their own officers and a faculty advisor. They meet regularly every week.

They serve as an advisory group on school policy. They help to formulate and enforce school rules and regulations. This and other duties make the Student Council a very active and important organization in our school. The officers are as follows: Nadine Hayes, President; Wilma Miller, Secretary and Treasurer; Mr. Allen, Faculty Advisor.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

A, is for Adkins, Leon by name,
His track records have brought him fame.

A, is for Adkins, with the black curly hair,
When it comes to painting Irene is all there.

B, is for Barnett, quite gabby 'tis true,
Always slap happy, never blue.

B, is for Barnhart his name is Earl,
When it comes to hobbies it's singing and girls.

B, is for Bassett, he's quite a guy,
When he's near the girls he's not very shy.

B, is for Breeden, the gal with a voice,
When it comes to boys, Jimmie is her choice.

B, is for Burd, with the shining brown curls,
Leila is one of the class' giggling girls.

C, is for Cook, from Vichy she hails,
When it comes to sports, Shirley never fails.

D, is for Duggan, in Agriculture does the best,
And tries to make this course quite a success.

D, is for Duncan, so quiet and shy,
As for boys, she passes them by.

F, is for Feeler, Norman has no curls,
But he sure is popular with the Sophomore girls.

F, is for Feeler, we know him as Wayne,
Playing basketball has won him much fame.

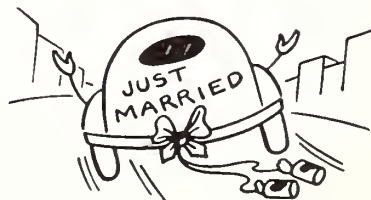

F, is for Finn, the guy with good looks,
Jeanne comes first, and then his books.

F, is for Finn, Leonard hasn't a care,
But when it comes to fun, he has his share.

F, is for Fritchey, a Kenner member,
Who's years at V.S.H. we'll always remember.

H, is for Hayes a great lover of girls,
Especially the pretty dame with the brown curls.

H, is for Hayes, who is liked by all,
Have you seen her pitch softball?

H, is for Hayes, Wesley by name,
In October he bought Velma the ring.

H, is for Hilke, Irene is nice,
For Walter she would pay any price.

H, is for Hodge, one of the famous five,
When it comes to girls he's Honey in the Hive.

H, is for Honse, Ruth is quite a gal,
We all know Shirley is her best pal.

I, is for Irvin, who's name is Betty,
When it's time to talk and giggle, she's always ready.

J, is for Jurgensmeyer, this message we greet,
Without him the Senior Class would be incomplete.

K, is for Kleffner, who studies her lessons,
And with certain girls has interesting sessions.

K, is for Kleopple, well known about school,
When it comes to shop work he knows his tools.

L, is for Lawson, Brunettes he prefers,
When they're in his Ford he likes C. O. D. curves.

M, is for Moreland, who says he's very wise,
Sometimes we don't agree with him still,
He's one of our best guys.

N, is for Nelson, so quiet and shy,
Never a good deed she passes by.

P, is for Pettit, our sponsor so dear,
The slightest whisper he's bound to hear.

P, is for Picker, a very funny guy,
Just watch his ears wiggle as you pass by.

P, is for Poor, Arvilla by name,
Considered by all a very pretty dame.

R, is for Rains, intelligent is she,
Even in bookkeeping she makes an "E".

R, is for Ricker, "Mona" by name,
Each time you see her, she's always the same.

R, is for Rowden, with the curly brown hair,
And for a certain Dean, she'll always care.

S, is for Shockly, who is quite tall,
When it comes to pranks, he's king of them all.

S, is for Stokes, who studies a lot,
She works and slaves, but what has she got.

V, is for Vaughan, the guy with the curls,
He's certainly popular with those Dixon girls.

V, is for Vaughan, for a cowboy she longs,
To spend her evenings singing cowboy songs.

V, is for Veasman, Rita, by name,
By whom both boys and girls are treated the same.

V, is for Viessman, for the Eagles he fights,
He can be found at Freeburg, day or night.

W, is for Walls, who is a nice gal,
We all know Irene is her best pal.

W, is for Wiles, who is very nice,
She wouldn't deceive, regardless of price.

W, is for Wilson, who's lots of fun,
She's liked by practically everyone.

W, is for Weidinger, he's tall we must say,
In the world of Science, he'll win his way.

W, is for Wulff, who's always at work,
She'll do her part, and never shirk.

CLASS WILL

We the Senior Class of 1952-53, city of Vienna, state of Missouri, being possessed of sound mind and memory, do declare this to be our last will and testament.

TO CLASSES

To the Juniors--the great privilege of occupying our dignified positions next year.

To the Sophomores--you are now half-way through, so keep up your courage, you will be Seniors someday.

To the Freshmen--anything that we may leave behind, in the rush of graduation, will be yours.

PERSONAL BESTOWALS

I, Irene Adkins, will my black hair to Betty Albertson.

I, Leon Adkins, will my ability to win track records to Francis Jones. Takes practice, Francis!

I, James Barnett, leave my smiling disposition to Don Hayes.

I, Earl Barnhart, leave my ability to sing on Ramseys' Bus to Leonard Wilson.

I, Willis Bassett, will my nice manly figure to Larry Zimmer. Watch your diet, Larry!

I, Jean Breeden, bestow upon Rita Brune my vocal talent. Watch those high notes, Rita!

I, Leila Burd, do hereby leave my ability to talk and giggle in class to Pearl Terry. Remember to keep on the lookout for teachers.

I, Shirley Cook, leave my position on the basketball and softball team to Amy Backues. Hope you don't break your leg.

I, Ben Duggan, do hereby bestow upon Corbett Ready my ability to play the banjo. Better start practicing Corbett.

I, Leoda Duncan, leave my quiet disposition and shyness to Audrey Barnhart, hoping she overcomes it before graduation.

I, Norman Feeler, leave my ability to have alot of girlfriends to Danny Backues. Hope you have as much fun as I did.

I, Wayne Feeler, leave my quiet chuckle, and quiet talk to Leo Duncan. Don't get any louder than I did, Leo.

I, Leonard Finn, leave my quiet manner to Russell Ragan.

I, Jim Finn, will my position on the basketball team to Raymond Brennan. Remember not to stay out late on nights before a game!

I, Donna Fritchey, take all of my ability with me because I'll be sure to need it sometime.

I, Bob Hayes, will my ability to make a hit with those cute Dixon girls to Lonnie Holman. Don't two-time them Lonnie!

I, Nadine Hayes, will my position on the softball team to Janice Buell. Better start pitching, Polly.

I, Wesley Hayes, since I'll need all of my knowledge to make Velma a good husband will take it all with me.

I, Irene Hilke, leave my old chair in bookkeeping to Helen Stratman. Don't break it down!

Class Will Con't.

I, Bill Hodge, will my position on the "Big Five" to Joe Southard. Don't talk back to the ref, Joe!

I, Ruth Honse, will my booth at the Freeburg Pool Hall to Marie Hilke. Keep it occupied as well as I did, Marie.

I, Betty Irvin, leave my ability to be "Barnwarmin' Queen" to Anna Koerber.

I, Jim Jurgensmeyer, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Louis Sandbothe.

I, Bernadine Kleffner, leave my heart to Danny Laubert, hoping it doesn't get broken.

I, Francis Kleoppel, leave my position as president of the Ag. Class to Allen Finn.

I, Richard Lawson, do hereby leave my ability to flirt with girls to Alfred Ortbals.

I, Arnold Moreland, leave my ability to make a hit with the sophomore girls to Francis Koerber.

I, Stella Nelson, will my ability to make "E's" to Wilma Miller. Takes alot of study, Wilma.

I, Charlie Picker, will my ability to tell funny jokes to Thurman Cahill. Do you know as many as I do, Thurman?

I, Arvilla Poor, leave my ability to giggle in bookkeeping class to Dorothy Bade--but be sure and don't annoy the teacher.

I, Edna Rains, do hereby leave my pretty blonde hair to Carol Rowden. Brush it every day, Carol!

I, Ramona Ricker, will my old seat on Ramsey's bus to Leila Ricker--if you can get in before the rush.

I, Helen Rowden, will my old faded blue jeans to Mary Bauer. Take good care of them, Mary.

I, Lavern Shockley, leave to Jimmy Kleffner my great height.

I, Dolly Stokes, will my place in Mom Parker's heart to Mary Ann Lawson.

I, Billy Vaughan, leave to Duane Harris my curly hair. You're not supposed to get crew cuts, either, Duane!

I, Lorene Vaughan, will my ability to play a guitar to Anna Koerber. Takes a lot of practice.

I, Rita Veasman, leave my ability to be a bench warmer, on the basketball team to Jo Ann Brune.

I, Tony Viessman, leave my sports ability to Ralph Bauer.

I, June Walls, leave my job at the Rolla Ben Franklin Dime Store to anyone who thinks they can get it.

I, Joe Wiedinger, will my ability to make "E's" in Physics to Jimmy Harrison.

I, Norma Wiles, do hereby leave my quiet disposition to Patsy Finn.

I, Betty Wilson, leave my quarreling ability to Darlene Wiles. I hope you win as many arguments as I did, Darlene!

I, Joan Wulff, will my ability to go through high school in three years to Joyce Edwards. Takes alot of hard study.

WITH SOME ADMITTED FAULTS, THE PRESS OF AMERICA IS STILL THE PEOPLE'S GREATEST SAFEGUARD, TOGETHER WITH THE CHURCHES, IN PROTECTING THE CITIZENS' RIGHTS, PROMOTING GENERAL WELFARE. THIS HAS BEEN DEMONSTRATED TIME AND AGAIN THROUGH THE TRADITIONS OF THE MARIES COUNTY GAZETTE AND THE HOME ADVISER. IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO CARRY ON THIS WORK WITHOUT THE SUPPORT FROM SUBSCRIBERS, ADVERTISERS AND BUYERS OF PRINTING SUPPLIES. WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION IN THE PAST--AND THE FUTURE.
